

Insight

Profundities and proverbs shed light on life's circumstances.
One can take delight in their complexities, combined they are wisdom.

Sometimes, the words glow, glisten as they spark the ah-ha, the understanding.
Oh, how I wish My children would listen, if they did they would hear a whisper.

Hearing My whisper is a miracle indeed!
It is quiet, soft spoken yet strong to the hearer.

Some would call it Authority, some All Knowing.
But all recognize its relevance, the Truth it's telling.

I beg you to listen, lean in, and hear Me!
I am calling you. I am here. Come closer.

Copyright © 2020 Dana Cook, MSW
poetryandprayers.com